¶101.13 MIDEAST PEACE

Mr. HAMILTON moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 143):

Whereas the conflict in the Middle East has caused untold suffering for many decades;

Whereas the people of the State of Israel have the right to live in peace within secure and recognized borders;

Whereas successive administrations of the United States Government have worked diligently to achieve a just and lasting peace in the Middle East;

Whereas under the leadership of President Carter, Israeli Prime Minister Begin and Egyptian President Sadat signed the historic Camp David Accords of 1978;

Whereas under the leadership of President Bush, a dialogue among the parties to the Middle East conflict was initiated at Madrid in October 1991;

Whereas this dialogue was continued through the strong and constructive efforts of President Clinton and his administration;

Whereas the Government of Norway, through its Foreign Minister, played an instrumental role in facilitating the negotiations that led to the signing of the Declaration of Principles between Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization;

Whereas the Palestine Liberation Organization has recognized the right of the State of Israel to exist in peace and security, announced that it renounces terrorism and other acts of violence, and agreed to amend its charter to delete all references to the destruction of the State of Israel;

Whereas the State of Israel has recognized the Palestine Liberation Organization as the representative of the Palestinian people;

Whereas Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization have agreed to a Declaration of Principles concerning an interim period of limited autonomy for Palestinians on the West Bank and in Gaza; and

Whereas many difficult issues remain to be resolved in future discussions: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Congress—

(1) supports the agreement between Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization, and hopes it will serve as an historic opportunity to move toward a comprehensive and lasting peace in the Middle East;

(2) applauds the efforts of the Clinton administration to facilitate these developments;

(3) welcomes the decision of the Palestine Liberation Organization to recognize the State of Israel and to renounce terrorism and other acts of violence and accept the path of peaceful coexistence;

(4) welcomes the decision of the State of Israel to enter into the Declaration of Principles, and reaffirms its commitment to helping assure the continued security of the State of Israel;

(5) commends all those who have worked diligently to achieve these accords;

(6) encourages all parties to the Middle East peace process to continue to work vigorously in the pursuit of a comprehensive peace for the region; and

(7) endorses continuing United States engagement in the peace process, and is committed to supporting efforts to make this agreement a success.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. OBEY, recognized Mr. HAMILTON and Mr. GILMAN, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said concurrent resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. OBEY, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said concurrent resolution.
